- José Antonio Echevarría, President of the University Student Federation (FEU, by its Spanish initials), raises his voice to demand justice for Fidel Castro and his detained comrades in Mexico in an article published that day by Bohemia under the title: “¿Quebrará México su tradición de hospitalidad?” (Will Mexico break its tradition of hospitality?).
- Many comrades and friends go to the Miguel Schultz Immigrant Detention Center to visit Fidel and his comrades. Cuban Teresa Casuso, wife and collaborator of Pablo de la Torriente Brau during the 1930's is among the visitors, accompanied by a photographer in charge of making a report on the revolutionary leader.
