

April 5, 2009

Published on Fidel soldado de las ideas (<http://www.comandanteenjefe.com>)

"Today drugs are one of the most serious problems in this hemisphere and in Europe. In the war against drug trafficking and organized crime, encouraged in the enormous U.S. market, the Latin American countries are now losing almost ten thousand men each year, more than twice the number lost by the United States in the Iraq war. The number grows and the problem is very far from being resolved".

Riferimento al testo originale: Reflexion: "Walking on Solid Ground", April 5, 2009

Source URL: <http://www.comandanteenjefe.com/it/node/70917?height=600&width=600>